(Public Notification of Nondiscrimination in Career and Technical Education* Programs)

Kerrville ISD offers career and technical education programs in Business, Management and Administration; Health Sciences; Architecture and Construction; Human Services; Hospitality, Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources; and Transportation, Distribution, and Logistics; and Arts, and A/V Technology and Communication. Admission to these programs is subject to age appropriateness and space availability.

It is the policy of Kerrville ISD not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex or handicap in its vocational programs, services or activities as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

It is the policy of Kerrville ISD not to discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, handicap, or age in its employment practices as required by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended; Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972; the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended; and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

Kerrville ISD will take steps to assure that lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation in all educational and vocational programs.

For information about your rights or grievance procedures, contact the Title IX Coordinator, Ron Chew, at Kerrville Independent School District Special Education Department, 729 Tivy Street, (830) 257-2203 ext. 241.
