

Kerrville ISD
133903

Grading:
Final Exam Exemptions

ELA-R

Beginning with the 2007-2008 school year:

Attendance	Students must fall within the following behavioral expectations, grade range and aligned attendance to be eligible for either fall and spring exemptions: 90 – 100 – 4 absences 80 – 89 – 3 absences 70 – 79 – 2 absences Absences will start from 1st day of enrollment and from the 1st day of the second semester. All transfer records (behavior, grades, attendance) will apply for exemption purposes. No suspensions (OCS, ISS); no removals to DAEP; expulsions.
Final Exams	Fall Exemptions are as follows: Seniors must take 2 core finals. Juniors must take 2 core finals. Sophomores must take 3 core finals. Freshmen must take 3 core finals. Any student taking an AP or Dual class must take finals in those classes. Spring Exemptions are as follows: Seniors exempt from all final exams. Juniors must take 1 core final. Sophomores must take 2 core finals. Freshmen must take 2 core finals. Students must take Dual exams.
AP Exams	AP students may take the AP Exam and be exempt from teacher-made final exam.
College Days	Two college days are allowed for Seniors and one college day for Juniors. Students may use those days either 1st or 2nd semester.
GPA	GPA points are figured into average to determine exemptions.
Monitoring	A monitoring system will be developed to assure students are taking the appropriate exams.