New Student Council Ready to Hit the Leadership Trails

Tom Daniels Elementary School held their annual student council installation on Thursday, October 8th in the cafeteria. The ceremony began with music by Daniels orchestra students, under the direction of Jacobi Caldwell. Entering to the orchestral processional were officers elected to serve in the 2009-2010 school year. Elected officers include:

President – Joey Diaz, 5th Grade

Vice President – Dacey Harvey, 4th Grade

Representative – Travis Reeh, 3rd Grade

Orchestra Representative – Kianno Dao, Orchestra

Safety Patrol Representatives – Krystin Bower and Nate Gelsone

Following an introduction by Assistant Principal Susana Alejandro and a welcome address by Principal Amy Billeiter, the parents and students in the audience witnessed the installation ceremony and presentation of pins and student council plaque. Student council advisor Sandra Klein introduced the newest advisor, Barbara Doran, who talked to the audience about the importance of leadership, service, and representing the Mustang spirit.

Each student council officer presented parents with a yellow carnation and the installation ended with refreshments.

Tom Daniels Elementary School celebrates 8 years of student council service and thanks the following faculty advisors: Barbara Doran, Sandra Klein, Jacobi Caldwell, Ilza Chappins, and Jackie Swinney.
